To

Whom It May Concern,

The African Federation of Vovinam – Viet Vo Dao, as the official governing body overseeing the organization and development of Vovinam martial arts across the African continent, hereby certifies that Mr. Redouane Guendouzi is one of the most distinguished and influential figures in the African sports arena. He has demonstrated a long-standing commitment and exceptional performance in this discipline.

Mr. Redouane Guendouzi has been awarded the Fourth Degree (Master Level) after successfully passing the official technical and theoretical evaluation conducted by the Federation's Training and Evaluation Committee. This rank is reserved exclusively for elite coaches and practitioners who have reached a high level of expertise in training, officiating, and leadership.

Furthermore, Mr. Guendouzi has served as an official certified referee for the African Federation in several major continental championships, including:

The 2016 African Championship held in Côte d'Ivoire

The 2018 African Championship held in Algeria

He was entrusted with officiating official matches featuring national teams from various African countries, based on his integrity, precise command of competition rules, and outstanding ability to manage high-level matches with professionalism.

We affirm that Mr. Redouane Guendouzi's participation in these championships was not incidental, but rather a result of his excellent technical reputation, high-level expertise, and the strong confidence placed in him by the continental organizing committees.

Mr. Redouane Guendouzi is recognized as a trusted figure in African officiating and is among the few individuals who combine technical instruction, practical fieldwork, and continental-level refereeing.

With sincere appreciation,

DJOUADJ Mohammed
Président de la Fédération Africaine
de Vovinam
